Awards and Honors received:

Purpose

The Queens Federation of Churches established the Interfaith Leadership Award to recognize non-Christian men and women who have rendered service to youth through religious and Scouting programs in Queens. Christians are recognized by the QFC with the Shepherd Emblem.

Eligibility

The nominee shall be a mature adult and an active leader in his/her own faith community who has served children and youth in scouting as a leader or helper for at least ten years.

Fee

A $25 Fee to cover the cost of the Certificate and the Award must be included with the Application. The fee will be refunded if the Award is not given. Checks should be made payable to the Queens Federation of Churches.

Deadline

Applications must be received by October 15th. The Interfaith Leadership Award will be presented at an annual Scouting Awards Dinner in mid-November.
