

Christ for the World Chapel

JFK Airport Terminal 4, 4th Floor

SEPTEMBER 2004

In Matthew 28, our Lord Jesus commanded his followers, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations." At JFK International Airport, fulfilling this command is easier, because all nations come to us. But that is also why our presence and ministry at the airport is so important.

Christ for the Word Chapel (previously known as the Protestant Chapel) began serving JFK Airport in 1964 as a mission and ministry of the Council of Churches of the City of New York. For 40 years, we have represented you and other churches affiliated with the Council of Churches at the airport. For 40 years, we have been a sanctuary and support for travelers, as well as for airport employees. For 40 years, we have been acting locally, but touching lives from around the globe.

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Book of Hebrews teaches us, "Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that, some have entertained angels without knowing it" (Heb. 13:2).

As chaplain of "Christ for the World Chapel," I never know who is going to come through my doors. But upon looking back, I am always struck by how God is working in and through the lives of his followers. Here are a few examples of some of the "angels" that I have had the privilege to "entertain" recently:

- a young woman from Africa worrying over an extremely difficult marital problem back home and seeking prayer;
- a customs employee struggling with a sick child who just needed someone to talk to and pray with;
- a group of people from the airport community gathered together at a Memorial Service for 9-11 who were still looking for answers;
- a church choir from Manhattan about to leave on a trip and searching for a place for prayer and song before their departure;
- a concerned father and mother seeking a word of prayer to be reconciled to their son;
- an airport worker who attends our Bible Study classes mourning the loss of both of his parents within the last year.

Through your prayers and support, Christ for the World Chapel has been there for these people, and with your continued help, we can be there for many more.

In Jesus' love,
Rev. Patricia A. Evans
Chaplain
